FLOOR DEBATE

February 13, 2003 LR 16

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: But it said, since Conway involves state officers, however, it offers little guidance as to how, if at all, Article II, Section 1 might apply to local governmental subdivisions. In other words, the Attorney General says, we don't know what the Conway decision.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So why should we change the constitution?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: To make it clear that local political subdivisions are not executive officers of the state, so that the question doesn't keep arising.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I don't know that I can support this. But my time will be up. But I did want to give you a chance to say a little bit more on the issue I was raising. So I'll turn my light on again.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: And I have my light on, so I'll let you continue.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Janssen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you, Senator Cudaback, members of the Legislature. I have just a couple of questions for Senator McDonald, if she would respond.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Would you yield, Senator McDonald?

SENATOR McDONALD: Yes.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Senator McDonald, I'd like to use this scenario of a county board, a member of the county board in any county, and he decides he wants...or, he or she, decide they
